LUNAR

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

Lunar has a Code of Conduct which sets standards of behaviour so that all students know what is expected of them, this works alongside the staff Code of Conduct.

It is not possible or desirable to lay down an exhaustive set of standards, but detailed below are general principles which, if broken, could result in disciplinary action being taken. Ask the Centre Co-ordinator if you would like to see a copy of Lunars Disciplinary Procedure.

Students at Lunar are required to:

- Treat everyone with respect and make sure that their behaviour does not discriminate against anyone or make any other person feel uncomfortable
- Respect the rights and interests of other Lunar students, staff and visitors
- Attend all required activities regularly and punctually
- Explain to their tutor or lecturer any reason for non-attendance
- Take personal responsibility for their own learning and make active use of the learning resources and support services provided
- Work hard and complete all work within specified deadlines
- Take an active part in reviewing their progress with their tutor
- Seek help from their tutor or school if they need it
- Act safely so that they do not put themselves or others at risk and observe all health and safety rules of Lunar
- Act with consideration for the environment and other users, eg. by not spitting or dropping chewing gum and litter.

Students at Lunar should not:

- Behave in a disruptive, aggressive, intimidating, bullying or unruly way
- Disrupt or interfere with the education or learning of fellow students
- Display or circulate any material which is designed to cause offence or distress to others
- Misuse Lunar property and equipment, including IT equipment
- Be intoxicated while at Lunar or be incapable of undertaking their course work because of excessive drinking or use of controlled substances
- Students are not permitted to smoke
- Consume or possess toxic, dangerous or controlled substances
- Make or send annoying, obscene, malicious or indecent telephone calls, letters, SMS messages, text messages or e-mails, or place malicious or offensive materials on any electronic media
- Cause malicious damage to, or theft of, the property of other students, staff or visitors of Lunar
- Use foul or abusive language

- Gain unauthorised access to, or make modifications to, Lunar files or computer material
- Enter any part of Lunar or Rockingham to which the student is not entitled access
- Carry any weapon or any other object with the intention or purpose of use in a threatening way
- Falsify documents
- Submit materials or work for assessment which have not been made or authorised by the individual, or which have been copied from other students or sources without acknowledging or referencing those sources (plagiarism)
- Take part in any illegal activity
- Behave in any way which adversely affects the reputation of Lunar
- Serious or repeated breaches of the Code of Conduct, including violent or intimidating behaviour, sexual, racial or other harassment or deliberate violation of Lunar rules are seen as gross misconduct and will normally result in the student being excluded.
